Narrative history

Lieutenant (27th Battalion, Manitoba Regiment) Robert Grierson Combe was born at Aberdeen, Scotland, in 1880, the son of James and Elizabeth Combe. He was a pharmacist at Melville (1908-15) before enlisting, and received the Victoria Cross posthumously for valour at Fresnoy-en-Gohelle on 19170503. Combe has no known grave and is commemorated on the Vimy Memorial. Robert's wife Jean Traquair (Donald) moved to Victoria after his death.

Victoria Cross citation 19170503:

He steadied his Company under intense fire and led them through the enemy barrage, reaching the objective south of Acheville with only five men. With great coolness and courage Lt. Combe proceeded to bomb the enemy, and inflicted heavy casualties. He collected small groups of men and succeeded in capturing the Company objective, together with eighty prisoners. He repeatedly charged the enemy, driving them before him, and, whilst personally leading his bombers, was killed by an enemy sniper. His conduct inspired all ranks, and it was entirely due to his magnificent courage that the position was carried, secured and held.
